

					1 A computer peripheral that converts images into digital data so you can see it on a computer monitor is known as:	2
3	4 In 2007, which recreational activity resulted in the most head injuries to Americans?	5 The bald eagle, gray wolf, and alligator are all examples of species that:	6 Trained professional planners who give overall investment advice are known as:	7 The folder that stores the pages, graphics, sounds, and URLs of places you visit online is called the:	8 When a member of Congress wishes to add something to a bill, the person offers this:	9
10	11 Wood and gas stoves and unvented kerosene space heaters are sources of what indoor air pollutant?	12 Chemical and other substances known to cause cancer are called?	13 A file maliciously planted in your computer that can damage files and disrupt your system is:	14 A life insurance policy that is designed to remain in force for the policyholder's lifetime is called:	15 How often must a US Representative run for reelection?	16
17	18 Which US president signed legislation that launched the US Interstate Highway System?	19 Name one of the three most common output peripherals commonly associated with most computers?	20 What is the neurological condition that can produce brief disturbances in the electrical functions of the brain?	21 Washing empty glass and plastic jars to store items reduces solid waste by what method?	22 The largest and oldest stock market in the US is the:	23
24	25 Identity theft occurs when this type of information is used to commit fraud:	26 The COO is the person often responsible for the day-to-day operations of a company. What does COO stand for?	27 Anyone to whom you owe money is a:	28 You are doing a 5K walk for charity. Roughly how many miles will you be walking?	29 When talking about energy resources, some are described as renewable. What does that mean?	30