

august 2010

HEALTH & SAFETY

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	2 This problem replaced malnutrition as the main dietary challenge facing today's American children:	3 Bicycle helmets sold in the US must meet the standards of which federal agency?	4 This process exposes foods to gamma rays or high-energy beams in order to decrease bacteria levels:	5 The area of the body where the thigh meets the abdomen is called the:	6 Glaucoma is the leading cause of what condition?	7
8	9 What should you do immediately when you get a minor burn?	10 A temporary absence from work given to women when they give birth is most commonly called:	11 In the US, which season has the most electrical fires due to an increase of appliance use?	12 If someone has been poisoned it is imperative to stay calm and call which organization?	13 Name one of the three most common food additives used in the US:	14
15	16 What drug can help control diabetes?	17 What health concern causes the most hip fractures in the U.S.?	18 In the US, the octagon shape is used exclusively for what type of road signs?	19 Kids who are 12 and under should always ride where within a car?	20 What is the most common symptom you will develop after coming into contact with poison ivy?	21
22	23 What potential hazard exists when you place electrical cords under rugs?	24 The single most effective way to reduce head injury from bicycle crashes is to:	25 Name one way to reduce your risk of getting heart disease?	26 Although asbestos can enter the body in several ways, what type of exposure poses the greatest risk to human health?	27 The Americans with Disabilities Act covers two broad categories of disabilities. Name one:	28
29	30 When blood circulation to the brain fails, what problem results?	31 Car exhaust produces this colorless, odorless gas that in humans restricts the flow of oxygen into the blood:

