

may 2011

CONSUMER RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	2 What law established the federal minimum wage?	3 What does the acronym NATO stand for?	4 How old must you be before you can work in most retail establishments?	5 You purchase a new phone. When does the warranty go into effect?	6 The first step in resolving a consumer complaint is to contact the:	7
8	9 Under federal child labor laws, you may work for any number of hours, even during a school week, after you reach what age?	10 The Federal Trade Commission has identified today's three most common types of fraud. Name one:	11 All television sets with screens 13 inches or larger are required to have a V-Chip. What federal agency requires this?	12 If a product bears the term "low calorie," this means it contains how many calories?	13 When a person walks across a street outside of marked crosswalks and not at a corner, they are:	14
15	16 An individual who buys or uses products or resources is commonly called a:	17 What does the acronym OPEC stand for?	18 One of the perks your mom likes best about her job is the flextime. What is flextime?	19 An important federal agency goes by the acronym FDA. What do the letters stand for?	20 What does the acronym FTC stand for?	21
22	23 What is the legal age to buy alcoholic beverages in most states in the US?	24 Who would you check with to find out if someone has stolen your identity and opened accounts in your name?	25 The first ten amendments of the US Constitution are also called the:	26 The crime of spying on the federal government for a foreign country is called?	27 How often must US Senators run for reelection?	28
29	30 Which amendment to the U.S. constitution guards citizens from unreasonable searches and seizures?	31 If you are driving and hear an ambulance behind you with its sirens on, what should you do?

