

december 2009

TECHNOLOGY

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
29	30	1	2	3	4	5
		Dialing a telephone number that begins with 800 or 888 usually means what?	When you enter a code to access your computer system, you enter what?	Highlighted words on a Web site that allow you to connect to other parts of the site or to other sites are referred to as:	Who sets the off-peak hours for cell phone service?
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
	Name one time that is usually considered "off peak" in most cell phone plans?	CDs became the most common software format, replacing floppy discs, for what main reason?	You post a "flame" on an Internet bulletin board. This is what type of message?	What more familiar term is short for Web log?	A company that provides direct access to the Internet, usually for a fee, is called?
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
	Most advertising dollars are spent on what medium?	When you receive a file transmitted over a network the process is called:	You call home on a cell phone and talk to your sister for 65 seconds. Most cell phone plans will bill you for how many minutes of airtime?	With the majority of cellular phone pricing plans, who pays for the calls?	The Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 and FCC rules prohibit sending what type of faxes?
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
	Many people buy CD-ROMs that contain data or music. What do the letters C-D-R-O-M stand for?	You send your grandma an email with a JPEG attached. What does JPEG stand for:	What indicates a secure Internet browser on the status bar?	The underlying hardware or software for a computer system is known as the:	Unexplained charges on a phone bill for services never ordered, authorized, received, or used is called:
27	28	29	30	31	1	2
	What do you use to protect computers from infections from other computers?	If you believe a long distance carrier has ripped you off, with which federal agency would you file a complaint?	When shopping for a computer, people often are concerned about how much RAM the computer has. What do the letters R-A-M stand for?	New Year's Eve notes:

© 2009 National Consumers League, LifeSmarts

This month's Question-of-the-Day Calendar brought to you by

