

february 2010 | key

PERSONAL FINANCE

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
31	1 No warranty; "as is" means as is	2 January	3 Test drive the car under different road conditions, ask for the car's maintenance record, hire a mechanic to inspect the car; get a vehicle history report	4 Annual percentage rate/APR	5 Credit limit; Limit	6
7	8 Assets	9 You can buy the car today; you can buy the car sooner than if you had to save money; credit expands the pool of customers; more people will buy used cars if they can purchase them over time and don't need cash upfront; sellers find willing	10 Federal Trade Commission/ FTC	11 Credit Score	12 Leasing or renting	13
14	15 President's Day	16 All of the car's tires do not have the same air pressure; the wheels are out of alignment; one brake is dragging or isn't releasing; loose steering parts and/or linkage; the car's tires are not worn evenly	17 Credit Bureau	18 Direct Deposit; Automatic Transfer	19 An item's value lowers over time due to wear and tear	20
21	22 Coal, oil, gasoline, wood, natural gas	23 How easily your assets can be converted to cash	24 Taking eyes off the road to dial a number (or send a text message); being distracted by the phone call and not paying enough attention to driving	25 Driving While Intoxicated	26 It wastes gas	27
28	notes:

