

november 2009

CONSUMER RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	2 Congress has passed a bill. The President refuses to sign the bill to become law. This presidential action is called:	3 Canadians who wish to visit the US will have to present what valid ID to enter the country?	4 The only industrialized country in the world that does not use the metric system as its predominant system of measurement is:	5 You are the victim of identity theft. You should contact the police in order to:	6 Which federal agency regulates fungicides?	7
8	9 Which federal regulatory agency oversees the telephone, broadcast, cable and wireless industries?	10 The system of limits imposed on all three branches of government is known as what?	11 Veteran's Day	12 How often must a US Representative run for reelection?	13 State laws against "pyramid schemes" say that multi-level marketing plans should only pay commission for what?	14
15	16 An employer or prospective employer can only get your credit report if they have what type of permission?	17 If a salesperson makes a vocal promise concerning a warranty for a product, what should you do and why?	18 This federal government agency's mission is to prevent work-related injuries, illness, and death. Name the agency.	19 Name the federal credit act that prohibits discrimination in granting credit.	20 A person who makes false documents or signs someone else's name to documents is engaged in:	21
22	23 If a delivery time is not specified when buying by mail order, the company must send your order within how many days?	24 One federal agency commonly goes by the acronym HUD. What does HUD stand for?	25 Which level of government sets the speed limits on the Interstate highways?	26 Thanksgiving Holiday	27 Thanksgiving Holiday	28
29	30 To find out about "secret warranties" offered by automobile manufacturers, contact this federal agency:	notes:

